

This photo was taken after a sprint practice with Track and Field Coach Besnik Mece on June 2010. Hurdle height is at 4 feet (1.21 meters). Moises athletic background extends from his years in elementary school developing a taste for track and field as well as basketball. Throughout high school he was named athlete of the year and won several MVP's in Basketball tournaments. A 2003 basketball provincial champion and the 3rd leading scorer, he also was the winner in the 400m grade ten finals. He ran with the Douglas College Running Club and transferred to UBC to further pursue his degree in Kinesiology and his athletic career in track and field in the 100m and 200m. Moises was also a Student trainer with the UBC men's Hockey and the Vancouver Canucks. He recently graduated UBC with a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and is currently a Kinesiologist with a main focus in strength and conditioning for athletes of all levels.