

I played basketball since I was in elementary school, all the way through to my grade 12 year. I played for Riverside Secondary school for all 4 years of high school. I am now the manager for the Simon Fraser University Women's Basketball team and currently in my second year. I am an education major and hoping to become an elementary school teacher one day!